

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
“Constitutional Traditions and European Heritage”

1 December 2023 (Friday), Jagiellonian University in Cracow

Conference venue: Larisch Palace (Representative Rooms), 12 Bracka, Cracow & online

9:30-11:30

Panel I.

Constitutional Traditions: Past, Present, and Future

Chair: Monika Florczak-Wątor (Jagiellonian University)

1. Martin Belov (University of Sofia ‘St. Kliment Ohridski’, Bulgaria), Constitutional Transitions and Transitional Imaginaries: Bridging Legacies of the Constitutional Past and Aspirations for the Constitutional Future
2. Bojan Bugaric (University of Sheffield, UK), The Resurgence of Nationalist-Populism in Post-Communist Europe: a Longue Durée Perspective
3. Kristina Trykhlid (Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University in Kharkiv (Ukraine), The implementation of the rule-of-law principle in post-Soviet states: Myth or reality
4. Zoltán Pozsár-Szentmiklósy (ELTE Budapest, Hungary), The Legitimacy of Transitions. Lessons from South Africa and Hungary
5. Monika Kawczyńska (Jagiellonian University, Poland), Establishing a coherent system of liability for breaches of EU Law. Is there a place for common constitutional traditions?

Discussion

11:30-12:00 Coffee break

This conference is organised in the framework of the research project “The role of the CEE countries in shaping the common European constitutional heritage” supported by the Priority Research Area “Heritage” – Strategic Program Excellence Initiative at the Jagiellonian University.

12:00-14:00

Panel II.

Constitutional Traditions and Constitutional Justice

Chair: Piotr Mikuli (Jagiellonian University)

1. Fruzsina Gardos-Orosz (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, ELTE Law School), Constitutional justice and constitutional traditions
2. Jan Malíř (Czech Academy of Sciences), Some thoughts on the role of constitutional traditions in the Czech constitutional system
3. Agne Juskeviciute-Viliene (Vilnius University, Lithuania), The Constitutional Court of the Republic of Lithuania and constitutional traditions
4. Anita Rodiņa (University of Riga and Constitutional Court of Latvia), Execution of judgement of the Constitutional Court: theory and recent developments
5. Krystyna Kowalik-Bańczyk (Polish Academy of Sciences, EU General Court), Referral to national laws or common constitutional traditions in the practice of EU General Court

Discussion

14:00-15:00 Lunch

This conference is organised in the framework of the research project “The role of the CEE countries in shaping the common European constitutional heritage” supported by the Priority Research Area “Heritage” – Strategic Program Excellence Initiative at the Jagiellonian University.