

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

States of Emergency and Human Rights Constitutional Models and Political Reality of the Visegrad countries

10 March 2023 (Friday), 11.00-16.00 (CET)

Jagiellonian University in Cracow

Conference venue: Larisch Palace (Representative Rooms), 12 Bracka, Cracow & online

Welcoming

Monika Florczak-Wątor (Jagiellonian University), Presentation of the Research Project "Human Rights Protection in States of Emergency. Theory and Practice of the Visegrad Group Countries" (DEC- 2020/37/B/HS5/02756)

11:15-12:45

Panel I. States of emergency in the Visegrad countries

Chair: Paweł Filipek (Polish Academy of Sciences)

1. Jan Malíř (Czech Academy of Sciences), States of emergency in the Czech Republic
2. Zoltan Szente (Hungarian Academy of Sciences), States of emergency in Hungary
3. Max Steuer (Comenius University Bratislava, O.P. Jindal Global University), States of emergency in the Slovak Republic
4. Michał Ziółkowski (Koźmiński University), States of emergency in Poland

Discussion

12:45-13:00 Coffee break

13:00-14:30

Panel II. Models of human rights protection in the Visegrad countries

Chair: Marta Kłopocka-Jasińska (The University of Wrocław)

1. Jan Grinc (Charles University in Prague), Human rights protection in the Czech Republic
2. Fruzsina Gárdos-Orosz (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, ELTE Law School), Human rights protection in Hungary
3. Monika Florczak-Wątor (Jagiellonian University), Human rights protection in Poland
4. Radka Vicensová (Comenius University Bratislava), A Widening Gap? Fundamental Rights and States of Emergency in Slovakia

Discussion

14:30-15:15 Lunch break

15:15-16:15

Panel III. Human Rights Restriction in times of COVID-19 pandemic

Chair: Grzegorz Kuca (Jagiellonian University)

1. Jana Ondřejková (Charles University in Prague), Restrictions imposed on the right to education. The case of the Czech Republic.
2. Marta Kłopocka-Jasińska (The University of Wrocław), Restriction imposed on the right to a fair trial during the COVID-19 pandemic. The case of Poland
3. Kacper Koman (Jagiellonian University), Does the Polish Constitution effectively protect human rights in a (natural) crisis?

Discussion

Closing remarks

The conference is supported by a grant from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Jagiellonian University under the Strategic Programme Excellence Initiative at Jagiellonian University.