

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

EU standards on effective judicial protection and judicial independence

4 December 2023, 17:00-19:30 (online)

Prof. Kristina Trykhlіb (Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University in Kharkiv)

Welcome and Introduction

Prof. Nina Półtorak (Judge at the General Court of the EU, Jagiellonian University)

EU standard on the right to a fair trial

Prof. Tomasz Tadeusz Koncewicz (University of Gdańsk)

On the First Principles of the law of integration, the rule of law and the social legitimacy of courts in times of constitutional reckoning

Prof. Piotr Bogdanowicz (University of Warsaw)

Independence and impartiality of courts and judges in the case law of the Court of Justice

Dr Oleh Petryshyn (SRI of State Building and Local Government of the NALS of Ukraine)

Balancing European Fair Trial Standards with Sociopolitical and Cultural Realities in Ukraine

Prof. Monika Florczak-Wątor (Jagiellonian University)

Moderation of the discussion and Concluding remarks

This seminar is organized in the framework of the research project “Rule of law and independent judiciary: Major challenges for Ukraine and Poland in the context of European Union integration” supported by the Foundation for Polish Science as part of the FOR UKRAINE program.

ABOUT GUEST SPEAKERS

Nina Półtorak Professor of EU law at the Jagiellonian University, Judge at the General Court of the European Union since 2016; Director of Postgraduate Study Programmes in EU law at the Jagiellonian University (2006-13); Visiting scholar at the University of Oxford (1998) and visiting fellow at the European University Institute, Florence (2005); admitted to the Kraków Bar (2000); legal counsel (2000-12); Judge at the Regional Administrative Court, Kraków (2012-16); seconded to the Supreme Administrative Court of the Republic of Poland (2014-16); Director of the EU Law Department, Supreme Administrative Court (2013-16). Author of numerous publications on European law and judicial protection.

Tomasz Tadeusz Koncewicz Professor of EU Law; Director of the Department of European and Comparative Law, University of Gdańsk; Member of the Editorial Board of the Oxford Encyclopedia of EU Law; Member of the Council of the Fondation Jean Monnet pour L'Europe in Lausanne; Attorney specializing in the strategic litigation before supranational and constitutional courts; Principal Investigator at Paneuropean research projects: H2020 Reconciling Europe with its citizens through rule of law and democracy (RECONNECT) and JUSTICE: Trust, Independence, Impartiality and Accountability for judges and arbitrators under the EU Charter (TRIAL I and II); He has taught and researched across the world among others UC California, Berkeley; Princeton University; Radzyner Law School; European University Institute.

Oleh Petryshyn, PhD in Law, Senior Researcher, Academic Secretary of the SRI of State Building and Local Government of the NALS of Ukraine. He is a dedicated legal scholar with over a decade of research experience and over seven years of academic teaching expertise, holding a Doctorate in Law and currently serving as a Senior Researcher. His research interests focus on European law, the law of the European Union, human and civil rights at national and local levels, rights of internally displaced persons, and maintaining the rule of law and constitutional governance during martial law conditions in Ukraine. He has contributed to numerous publications in Scopus and Web of Science indexed journals, serves as a collaborating reviewer, and received the 2021 scholarship commemorating the Revolution of Dignity and the Heroes of the Heavenly Hundred.

Piotr Bogdanowicz, Professor of EU law at the University of Warsaw Faculty of Law and Administration, where he lectures on EU law, including EU public procurement law. He is an author of several books (the most recent one on contract modifications in EU procurement law) and articles in leading journals, including "Common Market Law Review", "Public Procurement Law Review" and "European Procurement & Public Private Partnership Law Review". Piotr is a qualified Polish legal adviser and has been recognized for years by the Chambers Europe and the Legal 500 directories as a leading individual in public procurement law. He is a former adviser to the Polish Constitutional Court.

This seminar is organized in the framework of the research project "Rule of law and independent judiciary: Major challenges for Ukraine and Poland in the context of European Union integration" supported by the Foundation for Polish Science as part of the FOR UKRAINE program.

ABOUT PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATORS

Monika Florczak-Wątor is Full Professor of Constitutional Law at the Jagiellonian University, Director of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Constitutional Studies, and Director of the Interdisciplinary Doctoral Programme 'Society of the Future' at the Doctoral School in Social Sciences. She is a co-founder of the CEE Chapter of the ICON-S and a member of several national and international research groups and scientific associations including the European Group of Public Law, the Legal Commission of the Polish Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the Legal Experts Group of the Stefan Batory Foundation. She is the editor of three books published by Routledge, the author of more than 160 other publications and the principal investigator of several research projects.

Kristina Trykhlіb is Associate Professor at the Department of Theory of Law at Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University. She is an author of 1 monograph and more than 50 scientific publications. She is a Member of National Association of Mediators of Ukraine. Prof. Trykhlіb has taken part in the realization of international scientific projects and was a Visiting Researcher at Warsaw University, Jagiellonian University, Innsbruck University, the Polish Academy of Sciences. She was awarded the Diploma of the Winner of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine Prize for the Most Talented Young Scientists in the Field of Basic and Applied Research, Scientific and Technological Development in 2018 for her scientific work "Harmonization of Ukrainian Legislation and the EU Law: Approximation of General Legal Terminology".

This seminar is organized in the framework of the research project "Rule of law and independent judiciary: Major challenges for Ukraine and Poland in the context of European Union integration" supported by the Foundation for Polish Science as part of the FOR UKRAINE program.